point, by shooting himself in the head.

The story of the suicide begins with the purchase of ten gallons of gypsy whiskey a month loons. His sister-in-law, Sarah Corse, is said to have told Mrs. Weynend that a band of gypsies camped near Coney Island made a spe-cialty of selling excellent whiskey at $1.25 a gallon, and that if she had in a supply money home in the evening. Mrs. Weynend, it is alleged, bought ten gallons of the whiskey. Weynend didn't like the gypsy whiskey. After-ward he told Justice Watson that it seorched his throat and made him almost wild. He etruck his sister-in-law in the face, beat his struck his stater-in-law in the face, beat his wife, and was arrested.

He was sent to the Raymond street jail for six days. On his release he went on a spress his family left him and Mrs. Weynend brought suit for separation. The suit was to come up in court at 10 A. M. yesterday.

On Tuesday night Weynend showed his neighbors a 32 calibre revolver. He told them that he would rather be dead than go to court. He was induced to go to his rooms. Early yesterday morning he was on the street again with his revolver. He told Edward Koopan, a tinker, that he felt like killing somebody before he killed himself. It was supposed that he meant his sister-in-law. Koopan notified Rergeant Lynch at the Greenpoint avenue police station. Policeman McLaughlin was sent to arreat Weynend. Weynend saw him coming and went up to his bedroom, where he shot himself. McLaughlin heard the shot while going up the stairs. He found Weynend lying on his back in bed dead.

WRECKED BY A TROLLEY CAR. Baker Jacger Badly Hurt in South Orange

ORANGE, Oct. 4.-The wagon of Fridolin H. Jacger, a baker of 251 South Orange avenue Newark, was struck by a trolley car in Vailsburg. South Orange, this morning, Jacger prove fatal, and the horse was killed.

out delivering bread to customers. The collision occurred as he drove out of the narrow driveway leading to the side entrance of Fred driveway leading to the side entrance of Fred Roehlor's summer garden in South Orange avenue, near Grove street. A high board lence shuts off the street from view, and there is a steep incline going to the street.

Jaeger did not see the approaching car in time to rein in his horse and avoid a collision. The wagon was demolished. Jaeger's left shoulder blade and collarbone were broken, and he received many cuts and bruises on his face and body. The physicians at the German Hospital. Newark, where he was taken, are doubtful of his recovery. His son was not hurt. John Shupe was the motorman and John Smith the conductor of the car. The car was not running at more than the usual speed.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 4. The fact that the earnings of two industrial enterprises, the shares of which are dealt in on the Stock Exchange, have not according to all accounts, failen off in consequence of the general and increasing depression in general business encourages speculators who are interested in those corporations to continue their efforts to advance the prices of their shares. The stocks referred to are Sugar Refining and Chicago Gas. They were about equally active to-day, though manipulated by different hands, and the price of each was advanced materially. The movement was most pronounced, however, in Chicago Gas, which enjoyed a rise of nearly 3 points from the opening price. Minor features of the limited speculation were St. Paul, Distilling and Cattle Feeding. Western Union. Union Pacific. and New York and New England. The last two were exceptionally heavy throughout, and each closed a point lower than yesterday.

The illogical rise in New England, which was based upon Mr. McLeod's success in obtaining permission from the State Railroad Commissioners to indulge in his chimerical scheme for extending the New England road to the Harlem River, appears to have culminated. That and other projected enterprises of the visionary wrecker of the Reading Company may look very well on paper, indeed they are entertaining, but it is a very grave undertak-ing for a discredited railroad manager and financier to raise the millions of capital required for the pursuit of his latest fancy. It is yet to be learned that any one except the few who have hopes of making money out of Mr. McLeod really takes him seriously. Yet he ought to be regarded seriously, particularly by the security holders of the Reading Railroad, for his misdeeds in the management of that corporation, together with Mr. Villard's black record in the Northern Pacific Company. which every day is coming out more vividly.

have done more than anything else to circumscribe the market for railway securities. There was not a particle of news regarding any stock on the list, with the possible excep-tion that the gross earnings of the St. Paul Company for the last week in September and for the month show some improvement over those for recent periods. The weakness in Union Pacific was accompanied by a rumor that the financial affairs of the company are becoming critical. The chances are that this report was revived simply in explanation of the decline in the stock. The motive for the advance in prices, which was maintained until the last half hour of business, was, according to the operators who are responsible for it, a decided improvement n the outlook in the Senate for the Repeal bill. Two Senators were quoted as authority for

of the market undertook to secure their profits for the day. They at once discovered that when their buying ceased the market was without support. In consequence their celling resulted in a sharp reaction from the best prices. The closing, therefore, was irregular and in the main heavy. Still, many stocks retained a part of the early advance, but Chicago Gas, Western Union, and Missouri Pacific were the only ones that scored noteworthy net gains.

A good deal was said to-day about the amount, maturity, and extension of sterling loans, and it is evident from the discussion of the subject that a great deal of misinformahas become current. In the first place, foreign bankers agree that the amount of sterling loans outstanding has been grossly exagger-ated in many of the published estimates. They agree, too, in denying statements that these loans cannot be renewed because of the unrepealing the Sherman law. As a matter of sterling loans at considerably lower rates than owing to the extensive liquidation that has taken place, borrowers are paying off these obligations, and in some cases anticipating

Any one who wishes to borrow money on securities that are acceptable to foreign bankers can make better terms in the local money market. The condition of that market is shown more plainly than by the rates quoted further on in this column by the fact that certain banks are now offering call loans at 25 we cent, with the understanding that they will not be disturbed for some time to come and that the borrower shall be entitled to five days' notice when the obligation is called. In justice to the reputed shrewdness of the average bank officer it should be said that this betrayal of anxiety to lend money is not universal.

Bar sliver in London, 34%d. Amount offered the Government, 289,000 ounces, at prices ranging from 74.25 to 74.50 cents per ounce. All offers were declined, and a counter offer of 73.00 was made.

Money on call, 2.03 % cent. Time money is easier at 4 % cent, for 10 days, and at 5 % cent, for four months, on mixed collateral readily marketable on the Stock Exchange, but there is very little demand. The market for commercial paper is stagnant. Double-name paper and prime endorsed bills receivable are quoted at 7.08 % cent, and single-name paper at 8.010 % cent for the choicest names.

Storling exchange was very weak at a sharp

Task we cent. and single-name paper at $\frac{8}{2} to the choicest names.

Sterling exchange was very weak at a sharp decline in rates. The market at one time bordered on demoralization. The demand from importers of merchandiss was very light, and the inquiry came chiefly from borrowers of sterling, who availed themselves of the low quotations to settle maturing loan bills. Bankers are perfectly willing to renew these loans on more favorable terms than for a long time past, but stock brokers and other borrowers on securities do not care to avail themselves of accommodations of this nature, owing to the easier market for both call and time money. A number of commercial acceptances that had been sold for delivery during the first half of the current month were sent in today, somewhat unexpectedly, and helped to depress the market. Continental exchange was also heavy and lower. Posted asking rates for sterling, $4.83 \(\limes 64.84 \); sight drafts, $4.84 \(\limes 64.85 \); \(\limes 64.85 Clearing House loan certificates to the amount of $1.430,000 were cancelled to-day, leaving the amount outstanding $21,050,000.

Amount called for retirement to-morrow, $275,000.

When the Judge fied, after defrauding clients out of $100,000, he went to Chicago and remained there for some time. Within a few weeks the Judge has visited Reston and has spent some time in Chelsea. Finding that it was dangerous to remain, he left suddenly and has since been heard from by his friends as having arrived safely in the South American republic.

The Brooke-O'Sullivan Contempt Case, Four affidavits were drawn yesterday in the District Attorney's office in the matter of the contemplated proceedings for contempt against Lawyers Charles W. Brooks and against Lawyers Charles W. Brooke and William J. O'Sullivan, who drank toddles with three of the members of the jury that convicted Frank Ellison of assaulting Broker William H. Henriques. The affidavits were those of Deputy Assistant District Attorney Oaborne and three reporters, who saw the lawyers drinking with the three jurors. It is expected that some action will be taken in regard to the matter on Monday after Recorder Smyth has sentenced Ellison.
